Spectator Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Del Monte celebrated their 39th wedding anniversary Wednesday night. Says Andy, "We're looking forward to the 50th, and we'll make it, too."

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Knight and three children took off in the early dawn Tuesday for a two-month trip to New Orleans, a Caribbean cruise, then back home. On the drive to New Orleans the Knights will stop and see the Grand Canyon, Carlsbad Caverns, etc. They were thwarted in their desire to go up the Mississippi on a steamer. Seems that none of the river boats make the trip in the summer.

Ernest Gann and family due to arrive soon to move into their newly-acquired home in Pebble Beach. He is the veteran commercial pilot who acquired recent fame as a writer.

Friends of James Barnes, who had a summer home here, were sorry to hear of his death in Stockton recently. His son, Gordon, will manage the family store, The Sterling. Funeral arrangements are pending the notification of his other son, Allen, who is serving with the Navy in Korean waters.

As usual, the spring meeting of the Business Association was a friendly gathering unhampered by business. The steaks were fine. But only three association members took advantage of the Rancho Del Monte pool before the cocktail hour. John Morse and Katie and John Ruster were the hardy ones.

Belated congratulations to Louis Conlon and Catherine Alley on their recent marriage.

Summer is surely coming. Among those who will be arriving soon, after their annual trek, are John and Robert Schoenberg of St. Louis and their families.

La Causerie Francaise put on a French farce last Friday night. "L'Anglais tel qu'on le parle" was a resounding success. The cast represented a wide variety of nationalities--but none from France.

"Business Office Must." Mike and Katharine Gould are planning a trip to Europe...if and when they arrange to rent their Carmel Valley home. (See Classified section.)

FAIRGROUNDS KITCHEN APPROVED BY STATE

A $41,000 kitchen building and equipment for the Monterey Fairgrounds has been approved by the state Department of Finance. Of the total, $15,000 was raised locally among hotel, motel, and business people, and $26,000 was allocated by the state.

Corum B. Jackson, Fair president, and George Wise, Fair manager, were in Sacramento this week to present the request. Jackson said the state officials were "extremely cooperative," especially after they learned of the amount raised locally.

The kitchen will serve between 600 and 800 persons in the new exposition building. Jackson said work will start this summer and it is hoped that the facilities will be ready for use this fall.

FOUR APPLY FOR CARMEL POSTMASTER POSITION

Fred Strong, a veteran of 23 years with the Carmel post office, makes the fourth to apply for the job of Carmel postmaster. Alfred G. Mollner, the acting postmaster, Fred Mylar, assistant postmaster, and Ernest Bixler, ex-postmaster, also have applied.

Both Mollner and Mylar passed tests given earlier to name a successor to Bixler, who had retired last year. The results of the first test were evidently thrown out. Although it was not made clear whether the two had to reapply for the position, both Mollner and Mylar have done so.

Mylar is a Republican, while the other three applicants are Democrats. Both Mylar and Bixler are war veterans, which gives weight to their applications under civil service law.

NEW SWIMMING POOL

CONSTRUCTION is in progress (above) on La Playa Hotel's new swimming pool. Expected to be completed by July 4, the pool will be 38 by 16 feet long, with a snack bar in conjunction. The pool side will be used for terrace luncheons. Also in construction is a putting green and extensive interior remodeling. -- Arthur McEwen photo.

WOODS SCHOOL BIDS

Bids on the construction of a multi-purpose room at the Carmel Woods school will be opened at 2 p.m. today by Stuart Mitchell, school superintendent. Work on the project will start as soon as the board of trustees accepts one of the bids.

If the building is completed according to schedule, it should be ready for use in September, according to Mitchell. If it is ready then, double session classes will not be necessary.

TULARCITOS FIRE BUDGET PLANNED

A budget of $9,150.43 has been set for the fiscal year of 1952-53 by the Tularcitos Fire District.

A partial breakdown of the over-all amount allocates to utilities $18.75; equipment $1040.00; insurance $775.43; office $159.00; miscellaneous (including additional equipment, chef's salary, and grounds) $1580.00.

The capital outlay for a new power wagon is to be $3730.00.

Fire Commissioner, Paul Porter, states that eight new fire hydrants will be installed

SEWER TAX UNCHANGED IN TENTATIVE BUDGET

By good management, the board of directors of the Carmel Sanitary District will probably be able to keep the tax rate at 37 cents. This is the rate necessary to finance the tentative budget approved this week.

The tentative budget includes some $11,000 for capital improvements. When the money is received the board will have close to $100,000 to undertake the first part of a necessary expansion program at the disposal plant. This money has been saved from revenues by the board so that it would not have to call for a bond issue.

Board members include Chairman L. O. Kellogg, Stanley Pedder, Allen Knight, Clayton B. Neill, and Keith B. Evans. Shelburn Robison is attorney and William Satchell is secretary of the district.

BACH FESTIVAL PROGRAM NOVELTY

An interesting novelty on the Bach Festival program this year, during the Festival week, July 14 to 20, will be the rarely-heard Mozart "Musikalischer Spass." It is likely that few in the audience will have heard this "Musical Joke" of the Mozartian genius, scored for two horns and strings. The work is full of surprises and humorous interest, and the Bach Orchestra is looking forward to the rehearsals.

Willard Culley, Jr. and Alan Robinson, who are familiar figures in the Carmel Festival, coming up each year from the Hollywood Studios to play French Horn, will be the expert soloists.

The Bach Festival Box Office has now been open two weeks in its comfortable quarters in the Graham Music Store, located on Mission and Sixth streets, and the Denny-Watrous Management reports that more than 250 season tickets are already sold, with a steady demand for single seat reservations.

MUSIC SOCIETY MEETING

The annual meeting of the Carmel Music Society will be held on Friday, June 13, at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Sunset School in Carmel. Members have the privilege of inviting guests to the concert which will follow the meeting, at 8:30. The guest artist for the occasion, Jacob Gimpel, will present a program for the sixth, and complimentary, concert of the season.

Mr. Gimpel, internationally famous Polish-born pianist, came to this country a decade ago, following a sensational world tour and numerous appearances as soloist with leading European orchestras. At his Town Hall debut, he won acclaim from critics and public alike, and he has since returned to New York for six successful recitals.

FOLK DANCE & FESTIVAL SUNDAY

The USO Shindiggers will be host club for the Northern California Folk Dance Festival at Soldiers' Club in Fort Ord this Sunday according to Harold E. Brewer of the USO in Monterey.

A varied program of folk dances from many nations has been planned for the visiting groups from cities where dancers meet to enjoy the gay, flirtatious "La Jesucita" and "Corrido" as they are danced in Mexico; the lively Swedish "Hambo;" "Stack of Barley" in Irish jig time; a vigorous "Hopak" from Russia; a dance with a sad tune called "Misirlou" from Greece, and dances from many other countries.

JACOB GIMPEL, who will be the guest artist at the annual meeting of the Carmel Music Society tonight at Sunset Auditorium. Mr. Gimpel will present a program of piano works by composers including Chopin, Beethoven, and Debussy.

Ace Smith, from Salinas, well known for his excellent work with folk dancing groups in Northern California; Art Webb from Carmel, and Mr. Brewer will emcee the afternoon program which starts at 1:30 p.m.

Sterling Hall, Monterey; Roland Hosegood, Salinas; Charles Reed, Monterey, and Albert Atchoo from Baghdad, who is now teaching Arabic at the Language School in Monterey, will emcee the evening program from 7 to 10:30 p.m.

gian draft horses vieing with the miniature PopePonyHitch on an equal number, and Barbara Dodge, with the best string of jumpers in the country--will be other outstanding highlights of the show.

After a short business meeting, Mrs. Hisgen turned the meeting over to Mrs. H. R. Lusignian, who, in turn, introduced members of the Young Republicans including M. I. Templeton, vice president, Mrs. Jean Thomas, and Peter Dyer, each of whom gave a brief talk. Niles Pease reported on the tabulated study of the results of the primary election. Pease stressed the importance of well-organized and efficient precinct work. Mrs. Ruby Staten, a precinct chairman, reported on the work done locally. Mrs. F. W. Herman also reported on precinct work.

THE HOME of the Clayton B. Neills was the scene of a post-graduation dance for Carmel High students last Friday. A group of parents combined efforts to give the party, which was a gala success. From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"Good Neighbor Policy"

Remember one time when I told about the old loose-stone wall that separated Easy Roberts' property from Handy Peterson's?

That was when they decided they really didn't need the wall between them in the first place—so they simply stopped repairing it.

Now I hear where a fellow, who bought the old Johnson place, wants to buy all those stones. It seems he figures a stone wall is just what's needed on his property.

From where I sit, if that fellow wants to build himself a stone wall, that's his business. But if it's not really serving any useful purpose he may sooner or later discover—just like Handy and Easy did—that he'd be just as well off without one. Even some old-fashioned walls of prejudices are disappearing—like those that would deny a person's right to a friendly glass of beer now and then. Most Americans are learning that "walls" can get in the way of the persons inside as well as the persons outside.

DUDLEY NIX, the soft-spoken manager of Mission Ranch, is a long time Carmel admirer, although he and his wife, Joanne Nix, the ballet teacher, moved to Carmel only three years ago. Beginning in widely separated places (England and Mississippi), the Nixes are now happily ensconced in a new home at Junipero and 1st, surrounded by a flagstone patio and garden that are Dudley's own work.

Though born in the South, Dudley has been in the West since college days at the University of Nevada. He was a speech major there, and his education seems to have interfered not at all with his early career as a band vocalist. Three days before graduation he joined Tom Cookley's Dixieland Band at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco... and a thoughtful friend delivered his sheepskin to the stand on graduation night.

A writer, as well as a singer of songs, Nix contributed four numbers to the "Big Game Gaeties" at Stanford where he did some postgraduate work. He never saw them in production however, since he left Stanford the night before that occasion to replace a young singer named Tony Martin with Tom Gueran's orchestra. This jaunt led him to Texas, from whence he found his way back to California as assistant to the director of Promotion at the Palace. While there, he remembers, among other things, keeping the then radio editor of one of the S.F. papers waiting while he finished dinner... a young fellow who "looked sixteen" and is called Herb Coen.

From the Palace, Dudley went to a long stretch of work as the manager of both the Millbury Golf Club and the Union League. He stayed there until three years ago when he came to Carmel and, after a few months, took over the Mission Ranch.

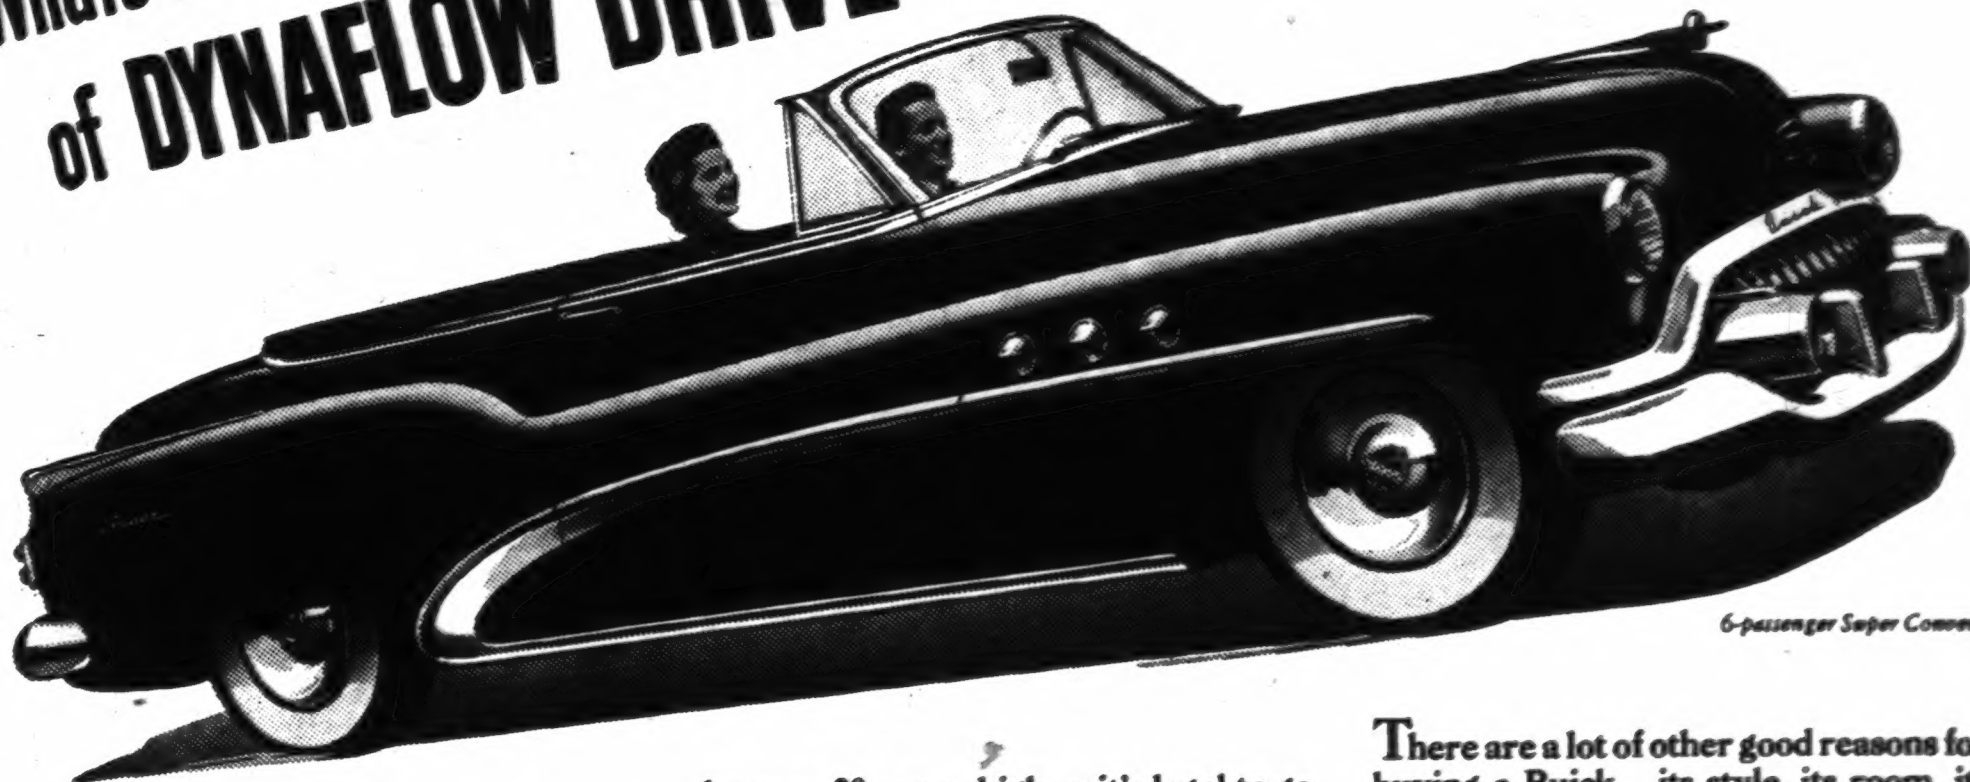

Fair, and tanned from his happy labors in his garden, Nix has the friendly open manner of a person who is used to dealing with the public, and happy in it. He has the soft accent of a southerner, but speaks more rapidly than most.

Joanne Nix, whom he married in 1939, was an English girl who had come visiting,

What's the big idea of DYNAFLOW DRIVE?

6-passenger Super Convertible.

THERE are all sorts of "drives" and "shifts" on the market.

Some still operate entirely by hand. Some depend on shifting gears, but do this automatically. Some feed the power through oil, but use a lock-out device at cruising speeds.

But we still think that Dynaflo* is the best of all for this simple reason:

The big idea of Dynaflo Drive is to make life easy for the driver.

In traffic, you can start and stop, slow down, accelerate with complete and infinite smoothness—because no gears have to shift, ever, in Dynaflo Drive. So there's no lurch, buck or bobble. Dynaflo always feeds power with a steady, willing swoop—at 3 miles an hour or 30—or as high as it's legal to go. On hills, you get the same sure, steady, unfaltering power-feed for the same reason. No gears ever shift.

On a long day's drive, you can ride with wonderful freedom from tension—your foot relaxed on the throttle—because you always drive through oil.

And at any speed you get a smoother ride, in part because Dynaflo Drive provides such a smooth and gentle linkage between that mighty Fireball 8 Engine and the rest of the chassis.

But this is not all. Our service records show that Dynaflo also makes life easier for your bank account. It saves wear and strain on the engine, banishes the cost of clutch repairs, saves strain on the transmission and even on the rear tires.

There are a lot of other good reasons for buying a Buick—its style, its room, its ride, its power, its thrift, its durability—and its price.

When you can get all this—plus Dynaflo Drive—why be a holdout? Come in and give Dynaflo a try today.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Fishing at San Clemente Dam now the best in these parts by a damsite... many Peninsulites don't know they can catch their limits of trout, pan-sized to 16 inches long, merely by taking a half hour's trip up the Valley... so they go to Idaho, Nevada, maybe because the trout always seem greener on the other side of the fence, to massacre a metaphor. ... Inveterate angler Stan Taylor and family almost weekly to be seen cruising the best channels and coming home with full creels... San Clemente Dam feeds the Carmel River and also quenches the water thirsts and greens the lawns of the Monterey Peninsula. Through courtesy of the California Water & Tel. Co., sportsmen are invited to remove fish therefrom; the only string attached is the old camp rule of "clean up the camp when you leave." The entrance to San Clemente is barred by a locked gate, but keys to same can be procured from Leo Scatrinini at The Stirrup Cup upon leaving a nominal key deposit... San met Dudley while here, and just never got back to England.

She's planning a trip for July now, her first return since then, combining a visit home with a course of study at Sadlers Wells Ballet school.

A dancer and model in England, Joanne began a ballet school here, three years ago. A demanding routine, she nevertheless finds time for both teaching and raising the two blond Nix children, Sherrie Lee, 8, and Joanne Louise, who is 10.

A tennis enthusiast, Dudley added gardening and building to his hobbies two years ago, and the patio he is just finishing now is a remarkably beautiful one. It holds two Bar-B-Quees, a deep-pit Chinese one, and a low small fry model, designed for Sherrie and little Joanne. With "Blackie, the 'just-dog' of the Nixes, around to clean up scraps, it promises to be a happy summer, with big and little Nixes merrily roasting dinners, dancing, tennising, and generally enjoying Carmel life.

WATER PIPE

Subway Transportation System

Beneath the streets of your city a far-flung subway transportation system, built for water exclusively, passes through every section of the area served by your water company. Traveling under pressure, water flows along this subway at just the right speed to arrive at destinations on time—where and when you want it.

Honey-combing the earth of the Monterey Peninsula are some three hundred miles of pipe which, like the trains of the far-famed New York Subway, are always crowded... the Peninsula pipe lines carry more than 5,000,000 gallons of water at all times.

Now, pipe is costly merchandise... more costly today than ever. For example, ten years ago 8-inch cast iron pipe could be bought for about $1.14 a foot... today it costs more than twice that. The complex assembly of pipes of many kinds and sizes required to carry water from the source to you represents a total investment of more than $3,000,000... an investment which must be added to each year to provide the new piping facilities necessary to meet the growing demand of this expanding population.

The Amateur Gardener

GARDENING FOR HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

By CHARLES W. DELANEY

GARDEN PLANNING

June is an excellent time to think of garden planning. All gardeners make mistakes in planting, especially permanent shrubs or young trees. We cannot visualize that a small plant will assume proportions beyond our expectation: some will grow tall, others will spread out and overtake some of their neighbors. Almost any plant can be moved. It is, however, best to transplant during the dormant or rest period, that is, from December to April. The expert can transplant at any time because he follows the proper procedure which prevents serious shock to the plant. Regardless of who does the work, the proper season is always safer.

SCREENING FOUNDATIONS

Each garden has its own particular problems to be studied and considered. There may be some exposed part of the foundation of the house that should be screened. If the exposed part is low, some of the newer geraniums may be used, always keeping in mind harmony of color. There are some varieties in red and orange that will clash with any other color. The Lady of Spain and Honeymoon are excellent pastel pinks. They may be massed in groups with some of the low growing lobelia in several shades of blue, the low growing pinks (a type of carnation), and violas, which have a long season of bloom.

A high foundation with a southern exposure is an ideal location for lemon and orange trees. They are very attractive in foliage, flowers and fruit. The dwarf Meyer lemon is useful but seldom grows much over four feet in height. Other shrubs may be used, such as pyracanthus, choisia, Virginal mockorange, viburnum burkwoodi, cotoneaster, snowball, bridal wreath, and many others.

COVERING WALLS

Large areas of exposed wall can be covered with climbing roses of the tea family, which will produce flowers a great part of the year. Just to mention a few: Texas Centennial, Ednah Thomas, Peace, Etale de Holland. In partial shade, fuschias are extensively used, also aralia and akanthus.

The hybrid wisteria, with roses, can be trained up under the eaves of a house. The fig vine is able to climb up any type of wall, especially brick and stucco.

COLOR PLANNING

The plan of a garden must be composed the same as in painting a landscape. The arrangement of color combinations and grouping is so very important--but the most important thing of all is to attain a result that is pleasing to the owner of the garden.

PLANTING VEGETABLES

We have never discussed planting vegetables. We are very fond of Bibb lettuce as it is tender, grows rapidly, and requires very little care. Make a planting somewhere in the garden. Sow the seed thinly every three weeks and you will have delicious lettuce, all the family can use. Bibb lettuce seed is available at any store. Carrots, beets, tomatoes (Cherry), parsley, radishes, and squash may all be planted now. We have squash and tomatoes growing on our compost pile and they are doing fine. Broccoli and tomato plants are available at your nursery. I should have suggested planting seed of bunch onions and some spanish onions. The latter will supply all you need for a few cents and very little effort.

Free candied apples and other goodies will be given to all the kids by the Monterey Peninsula Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the two-day bicycle event.

Immediately following the distribution of the candied apples, the kiddies' bike derby will start. Five types of races will be run off to the semi-finals:

Speed races, according to age groups, a turtle race, the idea here being to keep the bicycle in motion while riding at a snail's pace; a one legged bike race; a tricycle race for the smallest bicycle enthusiast; and an obstacle race. Prizes for the tricycle race will be awarded at the finish of the race. Prizes will be awarded for the other kiddies' races on Sunday, June 15, after the finals are run off between laps of the 50-mile handicap race, which begins promptly at 1 p.m. in front of Colton Hall.

Many racers have been on the Peninsula in the last ten days, from San Jose and San Francisco, trying out the 50-mile course and familiarizing themselves with the tricky turns and grades.

For further information on the Kiddies' Bike derby or on the 50-mile handicap road race, contact the Monterey Peninsula Junior Chamber of Commerce, Box 489, Monterey, or telephone Monterey 2-7402.
